To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this letter of recommendation on behalf of Lordslove Ngonge. She was a student in my grade 11 HSP 3U1 (Introduction to Anthropology, Psychology, and Sociology) course at Cardinal Leger Secondary School located in Brampton, Ontario during the 2019-2020 academic school year. Lordslove has a strong work ethic and excellent interpersonal skills that will certainly allow her to be successful in her post-secondary academic pursuits.

As a student in my classroom, Lordslove's commitment to academic excellence was evidenced by the high quality of work she produced for a variety of oral and written assignments. I was particularly impressed by the way in which she went above and beyond the expectations for the psychology essay. Throughout the writing process, she demonstrated excellent research and organizational skills. Furthermore, she consistently took the initiative to ask questions and used the descriptive feedback she was given to revise her work thereby earning the highest mark in the class. This clearly demonstrated her dedication to further developing transferable skills necessary for success at the post-secondary level. I am certain that her genuine passion for learning will be reflected in her continued academic success.

Lordslove also has effective interpersonal skills that allowed her to actively engage in class discussions and confidently articulate her opinions in an insightful and respectful manner. I had the opportunity to observe her interaction and co-operation with her peers during group work activities and was impressed by her positive demeanor and ability to work collaboratively to complete a variety of different tasks. She also eagerly volunteered to participate in co-curricular activities such as the annual Grade 8 Parent-Student Information Night. Lordslove worked alongside other student volunteers to prepare and administer a presentation and interactive learning experience. The level of maturity and quality of social interaction that she exemplified will certainly allow her to be successful in a post-secondary learning environment.

Lordslove is an exceptional student who has demonstrated a passion for education throughout her high school career and consistently maintained a position on the school Honour Roll. I am confident that she will continue to excel in her academic studies and actively contribute her many talents to your academic institution.
